

If attending the Katy, TX Workshops/Camps we suggest that you do a search on Expedia for hotels near Katy Mills, TX. Below is a map showing the area and there are some links to suggested hotels, but the best rates seem to be very reasonable. The site is labelled RSC. If you prefer to share a room, we will send emails to everyone at this site after the survey is completed and you can figure out those logistics. However, it seems from our preliminary search the rooms will be about $100/day and most of the hotels are fairly new.
